Description: Develop your writing IQ through personalized, one-on-one coaching. Students will learn basic rules of writing, organization, and persuasion, as well as advanced principles of rhetoric. They will be equipped to take ownership of their writing and discover their own personal style. Through these sessions, students will receive customized instruction to develop writing skills and apply them in practical ways. Content will be tailored to each student’s need, but may include grammar and sentence structure, advanced persuasive techniques, creative fiction, speech writing, or PSAT/SAT and ACT prep.
